to basic theory and musicianship training that examines the study of traditional theory through the art of improvisation the book follows the same general progression of diatonic to non diatonic harmony in conventional approaches but integrates improvisation composition keyboard harmony analysis and rhythm conventional approaches to basic musicianship have largely been oriented toward study of common practice harmony from the euroclassical tradition with a heavy emphasis in four part chorale writing the author s entirely new pathway places the study of harmony within improvisation and composition in stylistically diverse format with jazz and popular music serving as important stylistic sources supplemental materials include a play along audio in the downloadable resources for improvisation and a companion website with resources for students and instructors miles davis and juliette greco jackson pollock and jack kerouac marlon brando and bob dylan and william burroughs what do all these people have in common fame of course and undeniable talent but most of all they were cool birth of the cool is a stunningly illustrated brilliantly written cultural history of the american avant garde in the 1940s and 1950s the decades in which cool was born from intimate interviews with cool icons like poet allen ginsberg bop saxophonist jackie mclean and living theatre cofounder judith malina award winning journalist and poet lewis macadams extracts the essence of cool taking us inside the most influential and experimental art movements of the twentieth century from the harlem jazz joints where dizzy gillespie and charlie parker invented bebop to the back room at max s kansas city when andy warhol was holding court to backstage at the newport folk festival the night bob dylan went electric from surrealism to the black mountain school to zen macadams traces the evolution of cool from the very fringes of society to the mainstream born of world war ii raised on atomic age paranoia cast out of the culture by the realities of racism and the insanity of the cold war cool is now perversely as conventional as you can get allen ginsberg suited up for gap ads volvo appropriated a phrase from jack kerouac s on the road for its tv commercials how one became the other is a terrific story and it is presented here in a gorgeous package rich with the coolest photographs of the black and white era from robert doisneau henri cartier bresson man ray and many others drawing a direct line between lester young wearing his pork pie hat and his crepe sole shoes staring out his hotel window at birdland to the author s three year old daughter saying cool while watching a scooby doo cartoon at the
