practical guidance
the practical guide to blended remote learning and children with disabilities was created by the united nations children's fund unicef in response to the situation created by the coronavirus disease 2019 (covid-19) pandemic in 2020.

This book supplements the readings and activities in a qualitative methods class exposing students to the research process and the dominant types of qualitative research. It introduces a variety of theoretical perspectives in qualitative research including positivism and post positivism, interpretivism, feminism, and symbolic interactionism.

It can be challenging to conduct a systematic review with limited experience and skills in undertaking such a task.
