the unpublished short stories more extraordinary the title is extremely ambitious and we aspire to attain the level of it s exigence brevity has become the most active ingredient in modern society the messages that can be enclosed in a few words will extol dimensions of global expansion if they condense the necessary ingredients to impact the reader the objective is to create an imprint from words that can become the leitmotiv of an individual s life words that provoke such imprints and that you will pronounce until the dying minute of your life after much analysis of the world literature and it s attempts to achieve an imprint with the least number of words we were able to create the basis for evaluation and selection starting from the poet s art of synthesis the genius of the definition of the philosopher the concretion capability of the scientist and it is than that the greatest attribute of the short story creator arises the relatist writhing ability to condense language in such a way that a new description of the literary creation emerges the relatist in this way we inaugurated a new genre and named it cuentinimio tinystory it is necessary to differentiate the relatist of the storyteller and a novelist who has written in all genres and moreover has built images from verses he understands that each genre demands its own scaffolding we do not intend to teach but to show the scaffolding for the construction of a story it has been called little story or mini fiction even small tale brief tale but in fact the story of immediacy demands the greatest writing ability to resemble the speed with which we relate us the world day by day it is to pave the sheet with the asphalt of the writing ingenuity for the construction of the short story the tale or the novel being a matter that gives for a much larger essay that we will later share the objective is to achieve the most accurate selection of the unpublished tinystories the most extraordinary the reader should understand the extensive work of searching for them as if we were miners extracting precious diamonds and in all the range of the literary world the short story must start from two pages to no more than five the tale is acceptable with five pages and no more than fifteen who has climbed a narrative to more than fifteen pages he can extend much more since he does not respect the principles of the short story where it must express what is necessary by writing and symbolic transmission of a topic a theme that necessarily is telling a story in such a way that the short story should not exceed two pages in fact it should be at most a page and a half so there is enough space to allow the eyes to breathe this synesthetic element is fundamental not only content and form matter but the spatialization is also vitally necessary because the visual impact is significant the narrative begins its banquet when the reader has not yet tasted a single word precisely because he has visualized it with all its delicacies which he cannot appreciate pro tempora and it is not necessary since the whole allows the imagination to begin to salivate the appetite of reading in addition the type of letter is important even the jumps of lines and paragraphs welcome than reader to the inauguration of this new genre of literature tinystory cuentinimios in spanish and who writes the relatist
