London as fashion capital of the world, New York continually astounds with its creativity, daring, and innovations in the name of beauty. Yet high fashion means high stakes as Alex Cooper quickly discovers when a murder rocks New York City's fashion Week along with detectives Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace. Alex must reveal the grime beneath the glitz to expose the culprit unless a wolf in model's clothing gets to them first. A Twelfth Dynasty Mummified Princess on loan from Cairo is missing from the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Assistant District Attorney Alex Cooper tries to solve the case unaware that a killer may await a latest Alex Cooper thriller. By the best-selling author of Death Angel, finds the Assistant DA and detective Mike Chapman confronting Grand Central Terminal's dark secrets as well as their own changing relationship. New York Times bestselling author Linda Fairstein explores the depths of Manhattan's secretive Rockefeller University in this timely captivating thriller about the deep and often deadly reverberations of past sins. Assistant DA Alex Cooper of the Manhattan Sex Crimes Unit is finally back at work following a leave of absence and not a moment too soon with more women feeling empowered to name their abusers. Alex is eager to return to the courtroom to do what she does best but even she can't anticipate the complexity of her first case when she meets Lucy, a young woman who testified years earlier at a landmark federal trial and now reveals that she was sexually assaulted by a prominent official during that time. Yet Lucy isn't the only secret Alex must uncover with rumors swirling about one colleague's abusive conduct behind closed doors and another's violent mysterious collapse as the seemingly disparate cases of her client adversary and friend start to intertwine. Alex along with NYPD detectives Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace finds herself in uncharted territory within Manhattan's Rockefeller University, a premier research institute, hospital, and cornerstone of higher learning, but not even the greatest minds in the city can help her when unearthed secrets begin to collide in dangerous ways and unless she can uncover the truth, the life saving facility just may become her grave. Summoned to Tina Barr's apartment to investigate a possible assault, Assistant DA Alex Cooper finds a terrified and uncooperative victim, but when a murder complicates the case Alex follows a trail to the wealthy eccentric Hunt family in New York. A woman brain surgeon is sexually assaulted and stabbed murder by a demented patient or a more sinister killer. Policewoman Alex Cooper investigates Alexander Cooper Assistant District Attorney in charge of Manhattan's Sex Crime Prosecution takes on the murder of movie star Isabella Lascar in Alexander's summer home and someone from her high profile past who may have intended to kill Alex. The Third in Linda Fairstein's gripping and authentic series of crime novels featuring Assistant DA Alex Cooper with aplomb, style, and sharp compassion for her clients, Coop again unravels the truth behind murder in partnership with homicide detectives Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace. The victim is Deni Caxton, third wife to the heir of a steel baron and a leading New York art dealer in her own right. As Cooper, Chapman, and Mercer investigate her brutal killing, they strip away the elegant and refined façade of her marriage and the international art world to reveal a tangle of cut throat business dealings over blown egos and distorted passions. They find that the rich have the same motives for murder as the poorest killer: money, revenge, love, and hate. They rapidly discover that a veneer of artistic civilization doesn't prevent the use of blackmail or violence. Not even when officers of the law stand in the way for more about Linda Fairstein and theAlexandra Cooper series visit her website at lindafairstein.com following the critically acclaimed and top ten best seller The Deadhouse, Linda Fairstein now takes us behind the scenes of some of New York's magnificent and mysterious institutions in her most electrifying Alexandra Cooper thriller yet. Manhattan DA Alex Cooper investigates the murders of three victims while dodging infuriated gang members packing heat. Her interrogation skills lead to someone with a twisted obsession concerning the military and things grow increasingly dangerous. When in the Metropolitan Museum of Art's exquisite Temple of Dendur, a monument to an ancient world, a very modern debate is raging at a gala dinner a controversial new exhibit is fiercely opposed by many among the upper echelon of museum donors. Alex Cooper steps into this highly charged ring of power players only to make a much more troubling discovery. A young museum researcher has been murdered.
shipped to the Met in an ancient Egyptian sarcophagus together with cops Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace. Alex must penetrate the realm of the city's cultural elite to find a killer intent on keeping some secrets buried for eternity. Forty-eight hours after Alex Cooper arrives in France to visit her boyfriend and famed restaurateur Luc Rouget, her vacation in paradise is cut short when a young woman from the village is found murdered. The only evidence discovered on the body is one of Luc's matchboxes. Promoting his new restaurant in New York, the world economic bureau has been arrested and accused of attacking a maid in his hotel. As the world watches in fascination to see how the scandal will unfold, Alex finds her attention torn between preparing the alleged victim to testify and a murder case with ties too close to home. A second body is found with Luc's matchbox this time in Brooklyn, and Alex begins to fear that the two cases may not be as unrelated as she thought. Uncovering the sordid secrets of the city's most wealthy and powerful could cost her and her loved ones everything. Everything held dear. The Manhattan waterfront is one of New York City's most beautiful vistas, boasting both the statue of Liberty and the George Washington Bridge. The world's busiest traffic bridge. Assistant DA Alex Cooper and Detective Mike Chapman in the midst of their own growing relationship take on a case that forces them apart as a killer's twisted plan draws ever closer to home. In New York's central park, Assistant DA Alex Cooper and Detective Mike Chapman race to track down a serial killer. Before yet another young woman is found dead, is the body in the rambles, the victim of a deranged psychopath or could other missing women be connected to this savage attack? Thousands of New Yorkers and tourists who fill every day may very well become the hunting ground for a killer with a twisted mind after a lull of four years, the Silk Stocking Rapist is back. Working on the Upper East Side, but this time Assistant DA Alex Cooper and Detective Mike Chapman have perfect DNA evidence to work with. Success can never be guaranteed in every case. Alexandra Cooper prosecutes, but for once, the odds are with her. She's able to put away a serial rapist for a crime he committed over 20 years previously. Outside the courtroom, another predator is at large. When she investigates a possible assault, Assistant DA Alex Cooper finds the supposed victim terrified and uncooperative. But when a murder complicates the case, Alex follows a trail to the wealthy eccentric Hunt family. New York Times bestselling author Linda Fairstein delivers a heart-pounding thriller that explores the dark secrets of Manhattan's iconic fashion scene. In this Alexandra Cooper novel, New York City is one of the fashion capitals of the world. Well known for its glamour and style, yet high fashion means high stakes as Alex Cooper quickly discovers when businessman and designer Wolf Savage is found dead in an apparent suicide mere days before the biggest show of his career. When the man's daughter insists Savage's death was murder, the case becomes more than a media sensation. It is a race to find a killer in a world created entirely out of fantasy and illusion with her own job at the DA's office in jeopardy and the temptation to self-medicate her PTSD with alcohol almost too strong to resist. Alex is not anyone's first choice for help but she is determined to uncover the grime and the possible homicide beneath the glitter. With detectives Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace, Alex must penetrate the twisted roots and mixed motives among the high profile players in the garment district just as things are about to get deadly on the catwalk. Investigating the murders of two women whose bodies were left in houses of worship, prosecutor Alexandra Cooper rules out initial suspicions about hate crimes and begins a race against time to prevent further killings by the bestselling author of Hell Gate. Alexandra Cooper awakens one morning to shocking news: a tabloid headline announcing her own brutal murder but the actual victim was Isabella Lascar, the Hollywood film star who sought refuge at Alex's Martha's Vineyard retreat. Was Isabella targeted by a stalker or was she in the wrong place at the wrong time mistaken for Alex? Another authentic spine-tingling thriller from the woman who has been there herself. The Manhattan waterfront is one of New York City's most magnificent vistas, boasting both the majestic statue of Liberty and the busy...
George Washington Bridge but Detective Mike Chapman is about to become far too well acquainted with the dangerous side of the Hudson River and its islands when he takes on his most personal case yet. The disappearance of Alex Cooper is missing but there are so many leads and terrifying complications scores of enemies she has made after a decade of putting criminals behind bars a recent security breach with dangerous repercussions and a new intimacy in her relationship with Mike causing the police commissioner himself to be wary of the methods Mike will use to get Coop back if he can investigating two cases including a human trafficking shipwreck and a New York Congressman's sex scandal. Alex Cooper discovers a common clue that links both cases and puts her life in danger like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future they may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda. There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel it is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live. Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world they live in urban, suburban, and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read. They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit. Readers may be rich or poor, young or old, conservative or liberal. So are the heroines. What incredible choices there are today in mystery series. This three-volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective. Volume 3 of mystery women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial volume. These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1, 1990 to December 31, 1999 this more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in volume 1 which covered a 130-year period from 1860 to 1979. It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31, 2008. Assistant Da Alexandra Cooper returns in the New Breakneck thriller by the New York Times bestselling author of Death Angel who once again captures the essence of New York City its glamour its history its possibilities and its endless capacity for darkness. Grand Central Station is hiding more than just an underground train system when the body of a young woman is found in the tower suite of the Waldorf Astoria. Assistant Da Alex Cooper and Detective Mike Chapman find themselves hunting for a killer whose only signature is a carefully drawn symbol carved into his victims' bodies. A symbol that bears a striking resemblance to train tracks after a second body is discovered in a terminal alleyway attention shifts to the iconic transportation hub and the potential for a bigger attack with the President of the United States set to arrive for a United Nations meeting. Alex and Mike must contend with Grand Central's expansive underground tunnels and century-old dark secrets as well as their own changing relationship to find a killer who's cutting a deadly path straight to the heart of the city.
