A Series of Pamphlets on the Doctrines of the Gospel 1891 every May something extraordinary happens in the new cemetery of the sleepy little town a laburnum tree with buttery yellow blossoms flowers over the spot where lentina is buried a brave hunter Imchanok totters when the ghost of his prey haunts him till he offers it is a tuft of his hair as a prayer for forgiveness Pokenmong the servant boy by dint of his wit sells an airfield to unsuspecting villagers a letter found on a dead insurgent blurs the boundaries between him and an innocent villain both struggling to make ends meet a woman s terrible secret comes full circle changing her daughter s and granddaughter s lives as well as her own an illiterate village woman s simple question rattles an army officer and forces him to set her husband free a young girl loses her lover in his fight for the motherland leaving her a frightful legacy and a caterpillar finds wings from the mythical to the modern Laburnum for my head is a collection of short stories that embrace a gamut of emotions heart rending witty and riddled with irony the stories depict a deep understanding of the human condition

Black Flag 1999-03-22 Charles Bowden has been an outspoken advocate for the desert southwest since the 1970s recently his activism helped persuade the U.S. government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument in Southern Arizona but in working for environmental preservation Bowden refuses to be one who outlines something straightforward a manifesto with clear rules and a set of plans for others to follow in this deeply personal book he brings the Sonoran Desert alive not as a place where well meaning people can go to enjoy nature but as a raw reality that defies bureaucratic and even literary attempts to define it that can only be experienced through the senses Inferno burns with Bowden s passion for the desert he calls home I want to eat the dirt and lick the rock or leave the shade for the sun and feel the burning I know I don t belong here but this is the only place I belong he says his vivid descriptions complemented by Michael Berman s acutely observed photographs of the Sonoran Desert make readers feel the heat and smell the dryness see the colors in earth and sky and hear the singing of dry bones across the parched ground written as an antibiotic during the time Bowden was lobbying the government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument Inferno repudiates both the propaganda and the lyricism of contemporary nature writing instead it persuades us that we need these places not to remember our better selves or our natural self or our spiritual self we need these places to taste what we fear and devour what we are we need these places to be animals because unless we are animals we are nothing at all that is the price of being a civilized dude
Just Above My Head 2000-06-13 this text is a comprehensive introduction to tribal criminal law and procedure in the United States. Garrow and Deer discuss in depth the histories, structures, and practices of tribal justice systems, comparisons of traditional tribal justice with Anglo-American law and jurisdictions, elements of criminal law and procedure, and alternative sentences and traditional sanctions. Tribal criminal law and procedure will be an invaluable resource for legal scholars and students.

Laburnum for My Head 2009-10-30 Ann Beattie, Joyce Carol Oates, Richard Bausch, and twenty-one other celebrated American writers contribute to this moving anthology of fiction compiled by the editors of the Glimmer Train literary quarterly in the ten plus years since Susan Burmeister-Brown and Linda B. Swanson-Davies founded Glimmer Train. They have introduced an astonishing array of talented and innovative authors to a growing readership hungry for inspiring fiction. The stunning stories in this anthology, many of which have never appeared anywhere except in Glimmer Train stories, explore one of the most complex emotional and psychological ties of all motherhood and its many facets. The writers in Mother Knows include established authors as well as up and coming talents like Junot Díaz and award-winning writers like Robin Bradford, Nancy Reisman, Lee Martin, and Doug Crandell. Their stories demonstrate that motherhood is more than toilet training and tantrum control; as they portray the full fierce joyous and frightening range of experience that marks this state of being, mother knows is a thoughtful and powerful exploration of the most mysterious bond in life.

Tribal Criminal Law and Procedure 2004-10-30 Eastern Waves, Western Shores is a novel based on the life of a Sri Lankan woman who comes to study in England and then moves back to Sri Lanka and struggles fitting back in the expectation of the elders of society in general cultural norms and the demands on a modern day career woman. She is torn between her loyalty to her family and the dreams she has for herself. It is a book about a looming arranged marriage, the yearning of young woman to fall in love hopefully with someone that is acceptable to her and her family to live away from the family feuds and land disputes away from the dictatorship of elders vs her duties towards them even after following her heart and her dreams she feels tormented sometimes and seeks an equilibrium in America.

Weekly World News 1994-07-05 A stunningly original novel about food, love, and political violence. Somewhere in the Middle East an aspiring terrorist has been entrusted with a mission that will reverberate around the world. To deliver a bomb to a hotel in Beirut where the detonation will destroy hundreds of innocent lives if he remains true to his cause he will bring about his own death. Yet life holds such tantalizing delights. Food. His secret vice. The heady pleasures of bicycle racing. The joys of unexpected love. As the days count down to the final chilling moment of reckoning, this angsty, fast-paced, paranoid novel combines existential quandary with horrifying and hilarious results. A slyly subversive black comedy about a food fixated terrorist who dreams of liberation through a world of eroticism and sensuality, the cyclist combines absurdist humor and edgy lyricism to tell a provocative page-turning tale of individual freedom and political violence.
