3. Why do you want to work at this company?
4. Why do you want this job?
5. Why should we hire you?
6. What can you bring to the company?
7. What are your greatest strengths?
8. What do you enjoy about your current job?
9. What are your weaknesses?
10. What is your greatest achievement?

Prepare a short monologue under 60 seconds including your educational background, most recent activity, and a bit of personal information like extracurriculars.

Explain your strengths and weaknesses.

Prepare a short monologue under 60 seconds including your educational background, most recent activity, and a bit of personal information like extracurriculars.

Tell me about your greatest strength. What do you know about this company organization why is it here? What are the best answers include and how to impress when the interviewer asks this question first. Keep your answer work related when answering. Tell me about yourself. What's your favorite book? What's the greatest lesson you've learned so far how to respond prior to your interview reflect on what makes you unique and qualified for the job? Be confident when discussing your successes to show employers you believe in your ability to do the job well.

Tell me about yourself. This warm-up question is your chance to make an impactful first impression. Be prepared to describe yourself in a few sentences. You can mention your past experiences and how they relate to the current job. How your most recent job is tied to this new opportunity. Two of your strengths.

Can you tell me more about yourself? Tell me about yourself should be expected in job interviews but talking about yourself can feel uncomfortable. It's often asked as a first question or an icebreaker. Your answer gives the interviewer a sense of who you are and your background beyond your resume. What's your favorite book? What's the greatest lesson you've learned so far? How to respond prior to your interview reflect on what makes you unique and qualified for the job? Be confident when discussing your successes to show employers you believe in your ability to do the job well.
