The author was conducting a workshop for teachers in a church and was handed a note by a young woman in the workshop. The note read: I have never taught anything or anyone. I don’t know how to begin to prepare. Can you help? Dr. Coleman meets scores of teachers just like the young woman. He indicates there are men and women who are doing their best but who have serious doubts about their adequacy as teachers of the Bible. Wherever you meet them, they ask these same questions: how can I learn enough about the Bible to have something worth sharing with my class? How can I get the members of my class involved in the lessons so I won’t have to do all the talking? How do you get people interested when they seem so indifferent to Bible study? Is there any way to get the class members to study their lessons? How do you lead class members to do something about the message of the Bible other than just sit there and discuss it? Where can I find out more about teaching methods? How do you prepare a teaching plan? These workers care deeply about Bible teaching. They want to do a good job but they don’t quite know how to go about it and that explains the reason for this book. Dr. Coleman integrates theory and practice in a how-to-do-it book which combines discussions of teaching with skill building exercises. He brings the elements of a Bible teacher’s conference to the individual who has had no opportunity to attend such a conference at the same time. The book may also be used as a textbook for teacher training workshops.

These 52 lessons by J W McGarvey provide an excellent resource for the Bible class program or for the serious Bible student. They offer one full year of Bible class curriculum or in home devotional studies. The demand for the fifty-two Bible lessons prepared by J W McGarvey in 1874 for intermediate and advanced classes continues unabated. Notwithstanding the increased popularity of the International lessons, there are classes almost everywhere that prefer to confine their studies to the New Testament to the skip around method adopted by the committee selecting the International series. These have found in the fifty-two lessons the subjects and lessons filling up the full measure of their desires. Hopkins Publishing has reset the type and now offer it to the Sunday School world with confidence that it will abundantly satisfy every class that will adopt and study its lessons.

Christian adolescents in the 21st century face pretty much the same situations as the first century Christians in Corinth. Did an indulgent profligate choose your own god? Society. The latest in the creative Bible lessons series. Creative Bible lessons in 1 2 Corinthians is a 12 lesson curriculum with an issues-oriented spin on living one’s faith in the real world. It lets teenagers wrestle with the tension between biblical instruction and cultural realities. These 12 studies about the not so easily tamed people of Corinth and their founding pastor Paul of Tarsus pave the way for youth workers and Sunday school teachers to teach high schoolers about conversion, transformation, failure, leadership, authority, and God’s constant saving love even in the midst of people making a mess of things. Here are some of the not so ancient issues you’ll explore in this study: give me liberty or give me love. Friends don’t let friends go unforgiven. Those

Teacher Friendly Bible Lessons on Short Notice

Our Bible Fun Factory lesson plans are the essentials: the lessons that every single Christian child between 4-12 needs to be taught. In this series of five lessons, we help children focus in on some of the Ten Commandments which they are most likely to need for a daily walk with God. We teach children what modern-day idols are and how to avoid them. We teach children what the Sabbath is as important as it always was even in these busy times. As taught in Remember the Sabbath to Keep It Holy, children learn about the love of God by comparing it to the love of parents in honoring Father and Mother. Thou shalt not lie and Thou shalt not steal provide ammunition to fight off two of the greatest temptations among children. Lesson 1: Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Lesson 2: Remember the Sabbath Day by keeping it holy. Lesson 3: Honor thy Father and Mother. Lesson 4: Thou shalt not steal. Lesson 5: Thou shalt not lie.

We have three core beliefs when we create Bible lesson plans: 1) They should be easy for the teacher to teach; 2) They should be fun for the child; 3) They should actually teach the child bedrock principles of the Christian faith and the Bible. Each of the lessons include a materials list. Don't worry: nearly everything can be gathered up at a moment's notice from your own house. For example, you might need to grab a big spoon. Our much loved teaching script tells you exactly what to say. Scripture reading is included in the lesson.
