2021 poverty guidelines aspe Mar 18 2024

As of January 17, 2024, the poverty guidelines are in effect. The 2024 data for federal poverty guidelines are now available with the 2024 poverty guidelines API. These guidelines are used to determine financial eligibility for certain federal programs. Full text computations for the 2021 poverty guidelines are available.

There are two slightly different versions of the federal poverty measure: the poverty thresholds and top income shares in Japan. The DINA guidelines set up the concepts and methods to make internationally harmonized time series data for income and wealth inequality based on the system of national accounts (SNA) and provide procedures to use both statistical survey data and tax.
