Do You Care to Lead? 2018-09-20

Trust, confidence, and leadership must be present before the first battle begins. Today's workplace sometimes resembles more of a combat situation than anything else. Are your people following you or have they deserted and heading in the opposite direction? People today want leadership; they are not happy being managed. This movie clearly showed what it means to be a leader. It was a fascinating work of art sometimes horrific but entirely accurate the genesis of my fascination was i could see myself i spent years as a leader in the church i never faced combat but have been in enough demanding situations to understand the bonding soldiers feel when faced with life and death situations as a leader in the church i learned several lessons a job title doesn t make a person a leader leaders must first travel down the gauntlet with those they lead before they are accepted as the leader leadership is tied in with taking individuals to a goal they wouldn t go to without anyone else to reach that destination a leader must endure a baptism by fire he or she must prove themselves first until you prove yourself as a leader you will not have the respect and trust from those you are suppose to lead the title leader is not something you call yourself like a crown those you lead place it upon your head the supreme test of leadership is the ability to lead people in combat there is nothing scarier than facing the possibility of death in war no matter the situation war or peace authentic leadership and a clear sense of purpose are the key ingredients making the difference do you do what you love and love what you do how many of us are stuck in day jobs that really don t suit us has our heart left the building it is so easy to go through the motions in leadership and management and lead with our heads while our hearts long to be elsewhere in this short new passion packed book by dr hans finzel you will learn what it means to work in your passion zone hans explains from his own journey how to find your passion zone and what action steps to take if you are far from that place of fulfillment specifically you will learn about how to match up your profile and wiring to just the right assignment people love following leaders whose hearts are fueled by passion this book will help you uncover what passion in your work really is and how to find it no matter what stage you are at in your career the advice in this book is especially powerful for anyone in a role of leadership that is experiencing boredom or burn out life is too short to settle for less than the best especially if we are called to lead other people leading from the heart is working and leading from your passion zone why does leading from the heart really matter it can be natural to think if i am smart enough gifted enough and work hard enough of course people will respond to my leadership the more gifted you are and the smarter you are the more that this can be a temptation and the easy default the problem is that kind of leadership does not inspire people and build deep loyalty the opposite is often true people follow people who they know trust and believe that trust is built between leader and follower within their hearts people follow leaders who are operating in their passion zone there is some sort of a magnetic loyalty that grows in followers who respond to leaders who lead with passion out front it seems that in today's fast paced always on digital world less is more so that is what the author is offering up this first in a series of mini books on big leadership topics

Leading with Confidence 2021-06-12 you want to be a leader but where do you start it doesn t start with a certain position it doesn t start with finding followers it definitely doesn t start with a group of people electing you to be their leader the real secret to developing strong lasting leadership starts with you learning how to lead you because the people whom you ll eventually lead are wondering if i can t trust you to lead you how can i trust you to lead me there is one distinguishing characteristic that separates effective and ineffective leaders more than any other the intentional effort to lead oneself well before trying to lead others well the thing is leading yourself first is as important for the leader of fortune 500 company as it is for the student who leads his or her club at school most leaders fail not because of the way they lead others but because of the way they lead themselves in leadership starts with you tim milburn explains how to keep the promises you make to yourself as a way to keep the promises you make to others develop a disciplined framework to your life apply the rhodium rule the one rule that tells you why self leadership is so important create a growth p l a n that actually works get the most value out of each day take responsibility for your life rather than accept it assess your own character to identify your own blind spots capitalize on improving your physical health to improve all other areas of your life take an authentic look at your life and approach your shortcomings with humility lead yourself in front of others to develop influence with others in addition this book provides the reader with a variety of tools assessments and practical action steps to put to work immediately in one s life

Leadership 2004

this year alone there will be over 250 million book titles published around the world in over 18000 languages approximately 249 million of those book titles will be on the topic of leadership the other million will be about cooking shows cats and donald trump seems like everyone is writing a book about leadership check out just some these best selling titles how wombats lead learning to lead is leading to learn like a learning leader learns learning 100001 leadership secrets this book is just all blank pages by the way they decided not to share the secrets with you after all the don’t use my book or d u m b method of leadership development leadership and table tennis how hitting little white balls made me a better leader there are millions and millions of words written every year about leadership leaders leading leadership training leadership coaching and every conceivable aspect of leadership funny thing is leadership as it’s been thought about spoken about and written about for the past 50 years has changed it’s changed radically and dramatically and for the better this book is the opposite of every leadership book you’ve ever read that doesn’t mean you start reading it from the back page and read the ending first not that anyone would ever do that leading without leading will show you how to lead without actually doing it i am not selling leadership training programs i don’t have a catalog of leadership dvds cds or any other kind of ds to sell you about leadership there’s no 18 steps to being a great leader program to buy this book leading without leading is about one simple idea anyone and i mean anyone can lead leading with leading is based on the premise that everything you’ve ever read about leadership being a model or a technique or a system or a course or a program or an mba or series of dvds is completely utterly and comprehensively wrong over the past 25 years i’ve worked with some of the most brilliant athletes coaches and teams all over the world i’ve listened i’ve looked and i’ve learnt what it is that they do that makes them extra ordinary and across that quarter of a century one thing has become apparent leadership in the traditional sense in the churchill kennedy great political leader type leadership doesn’t really exist not any more every chapter of this book features a real life story a first hand experience of how people i’ve known and worked with across the globe inspire the hearts and minds of others what most people call leadership is really just ordinary people being comfortable with being themselves and it is that comfort that genuineness that authenticity that honesty that allows them to connect with and inspire meaningful change in other people there is no one way to lead that’s because there’s no one like you you lead by being you and if you get this one concept you can learn to lead your family your friends your work colleagues your neighbors your team your class your school your community and yes if you want to your organization effectively and efficiently not by using a method or a technique or by attending a conference but by simply genuinely being yourself
